What this edition contains

All 194 note events in the supplied Lead Vocal MIDI, in source order.

No pitches were added, removed or transposed. The three sequential MIDI voice tracks are presented on one staff.

Editorial notation

Onsets and note endings are rounded to the nearest sixteenth note.

The printed 4/4 bar grouping is editorial; the MIDI has no meter event.

The tempo is shown as approximately 114 BPM. The source tempo map varies from approximately 112 to 115 BPM and remains in the original MIDI.

No key signature is asserted: invalid source key metadata was ignored.

Accidentals are printed where needed.

Use with the recording

This is a reading edition of an existing MIDI transcription, not a final checked lead sheet or piano/vocal arrangement. Verify pitches, rhythm, rests and phrasing against the recording before performance.

No chord symbols, accompaniment or syllable-to-note alignment have been inferred. The supplied English lyrics follow on a separate page.

Lyrics

Aloha or Shalom | Music and lyrics by Walter J. Kin (RIGLI)

Doo wah shoo bop

Hey now shalom

My friend was dancing through the rain

Like every cloud had missed her name

I said What keeps your spirits bright

She laughed My mama raised me right

Mama raised her right

Put a little sunshine in somebody's day

A little sunshine

Give a helping hand along the way

Along the way

Keep a little courage when the cold winds blow

And greet the world with aloha or shalom

Aloha

Shalom

Pass it on wherever you go

Now when a stranger looks my way

I've got a little more to say

A simple word an open door

Can give us something worth smiling for

Put a little sunshine in somebody's day

A little sunshine

Give a helping hand along the way

Along the way

Keep a little courage when the cold winds blow

And greet the world with aloha or shalom

Aloha

Shalom

That's the sweetest song I know
